Informative and analytical monthly magazine «Antiq.Info» provides readers with up-to-date information about the Russian art and antiques market, major art events in Russia and abroad, publishes interviews, reports and critical essays, subject articles about unique art pieces, renowned collectors and collections. Since 2005 the magazine is published in two languages — in Russian and in English.

The «Antiq.Info» magazine is oriented on representatives of business, political and art elite, professional art and antique dealers and collectors, museum staff, art critics and experts.

Magazine circulation is 20,000 copies, 200 pages each issue, full-colour edition with a great number of illustrations and high quality photos.

Our magazine offers unique reference materials — auction schedules of the major Russian and foreign auction houses. This data may be found on a special CD, distributed under subscription.
